Part 4 Instructions for Gross Income Tax Exemption

I.C. 6-2.1-3-32 provides an exemption from gross income for qualified increased enterprise zone gross income. The exemption is equal to the amount by which gross income, derived from sources within the zone during the current tax year, exceeds the amount of gross income derived from sources within the zone during the base year.

Gross income derived from sources within the enterprise zone means:

- (1) Gross income from real or tangible personal property located in the zone;
- (2) Income from doing business in the zone;
- (3) Income from a trade or profession conducted in the zone;
- (4) Compensation for labor or services rendered within the zone; and
- (5) Income from stocks, bonds, notes, bank deposits, patents, copyrights, secret processes and formulas, good will, trademarks, trade brands, franchises, and other intangible personal property having a situs in the enterprise zone.

Base Year means:

The 12 month period that immediately precedes the month in which the enterprise zone is established. Determine the monthly base period enterprise zone gross income by dividing the base year gross income by 12. For fiscal years, the increase that is exempt from gross income tax is determined by multiplying the monthly base period enterprise zone gross income by the number of months after the enterprise zone is designated that is included in the taxpayer's return and subtracting the sum from the enterprise zone gross income received during those months.

The start of the base period and additional information may be obtained from the local Urban Enterprise Zone Association in each zone or the Indiana Department of Commerce, Community Development Division, Enterprise Zone Services, One North Capitol Avenue, Suite 600, Indianapolis, Indiana, 46204; or by telephone at (317) 232-8911.

Except as noted below, if business income derived from sources within an enterprise zone cannot be allocated (separated) from the business income derived from sources outside the zone, gross income must be apportioned by using Part 4A and completing lines 6 through 11 of Schedule EZ.

NOTE: A taxpayer is exempt from the allocation, on line 4, or apportionment provisions for computing income derived from the zone when it: (1) Does not own, rent, or lease real property outside of an enterprise zone that is an integral part of its trade or business; and (2) Is not owned or controlled directly or indirectly by a taxpayer that owns, rents, or leases real property outside of an enterprise zone. In such cases, all taxable Indiana gross income will be attributed to the zone.

COMPLETING PART 4

Lines 1 through 5 should be completed in full. Taxpayers that are subject to the apportionment provisions, prescribed under I.C. 6-2.1-3-32(d)-(p), must skip lines 4 and 5 and continue to line 6. (Refer to Part 1A instructions only for general apportionment guidelines).

Line 1 - Enter total gross receipts received during the base year and current year. If a taxpayer did not engage in an active trade or business within an enterprise zone during the base year, the base period gross income is zero. All taxpayers must prorate their base year and tax year income in the first year of a zone's designation if the zone was designated as starting other than on a calendar year basis. Otherwise, only short-year and fiscal-year taxpayers need to prorate both in the first year of designation. Following the year of designation the base year is always computed using a 12 month period and only short-year filers need prorate their income accordingly.

Line 2 - Enter other nontaxable gross receipts from all sources (Form IT-20, Schedule G) plus one gross income exemption (maximum $1000 each year). Prorate entries if necessary.

Line 4 - Unless otherwise exempt, enter the portion of Indiana gross income reported on line 3 that you can allocate as received from sources outside of the enterprise zone. (If your gross income cannot be separated within and outside the zone, go to line 6).

Line 6 - Enter Indiana taxable gross income from line 3.

Line 7 - Enter the apportionment percentage from Schedule EZ, Part 4 A, line 5 in each column for the base year and the current year. (A three-factor apportionment schedule must be completed for both the base year and the current year). The sales factor is not double-weighted for gross income tax purposes.

Line 8 - If line 6 is completed, multiply that amount by percent on line 7; otherwise, enter the amount from line 5.

Line 9 - This is your total qualified increased enterprise zone gross income. Entries for lines 10 or 11 may not exceed this amount or be less than zero.

Line 10 - Subtract the base year high rate receipts, line 8 column A, from the current year high rate receipts, line 8 column C.

Line 11 - Subtract the base year low rate receipts, line 8 column B, from the current year low rate receipts, line 8 column D.

To complete the gross income tax return, carry the qualified increased enterprise zone income amount on lines 10 and 11 to the appropriate annual gross tax return, Form IT-20 Schedule G, or Form IT-20NP Schedule F, and enter as nontaxable high and low tax rate gross receipts.
